which it intended to present at the hearing of this matter, which was scheduled for July 17, 1990 at 11:00 a.m.

It appears from the docket file and the Commission's records that Home Owners has not complied with instructions to submit proof of publication or those requiring service and filing of testimony and exhibits. Consultants representing Home Owners were contacted on several occasions by members of the Commission Staff to ascertain the status of Home Owners' testimony. On each occasion, no information was provided.

Based on the foregoing, the Commission is of the opinion, and so finds, that the hearing of this matter originally scheduled to commence at 11:00 a.m. on July 17, 1990, should be continued until further notice, and the Commission hereby so orders.

Further, the Commission notes that Home Owners does not have authority to provide intrastate telecommunications services in South Carolina and finds that Home Owners should not provide such services until properly certificated by the Commission. The Commission hereby admonishes Home Owners not to provide such services in South Carolina until it has obtained certification by this Commission.
